

Supplement 3. Correlation between gene expression levels obtained by microarray hybridization and real-time RT-PCR. Data points are \log_{10} transformed fold changes in gene expression level in nitrite-stressed vs control cultures. The straight line represents the linear correlation between the RT-PCR and microarray data with the correlation coefficient also shown.